Background

Equality is a human right. Both men and women are entitled to live with dignity and with freedom from want and from fear. Whether this be gender equality as a precondition for advancing development and reducing poverty: empowered women contribute to the health and productivity of whole communities, improving the prospects for the next generation. Or more general human rights for minorities, those under threat of being suppressed or living in fear because of who they are or what they believe.

The challenge

Can you think of a way to change current behaviours and inspire people to understand the value brought by treating everyone equally?

You may simply want to raise awareness, or perhaps you can think of a way to actively change human behaviour and understanding.
